NAVAL CADET AND CIVIL SERVICE

Captain White received no word on the Alameda yesterday regarding the examination of Ellis Lando for the Annapolis Naval Academy, and he stated that he did not expect any.

Captain White said that under a new regulation cadets are now examined by the Civil Service Commission in their respective localities upon questions submitted by the Naval Board. Under this section two examinations are held annually by the Civil Service Commission, and the next one must be held on August 11th. The results of this examination are sent to the Academy board which passes upon the papers. If the cadet makes the required mark he must then go to Annapolis for the physical examination.

Captain White expects that in the next mail the appointment of Lando as cadet will arrive, and also the order to the Civil Service Examiners to put him through the test.

Shipping Notes.

The schooner Lady was run aground at Heala intentionally, for the purpose of painting her. She will be floated off when the job is done.

E. C. Horst and family will sail on the Hongkong Maru this morning. The family was released from quarantine yesterday, the little girl having fully recovered from her attack of smallpox.

The Hanalei brought a lot of Midway sand in ballast. It is extremely white, and seems to have been of coral formation. The cable men will have a rather difficult time growing the plants they took from here in the soil.
